Please make sure you wrap back around to Counsel to get a response on the stmt below (which hopefully will be today):

Could we arrange a time sometime soon to discuss the pending FOIA requests' statuses? The continuing failure to produce Kim Vandenberg Yahoo emails from our first request is disheartening.

I would assume Counsel is okay with you advising on status of other requests; however, from my understanding, we are in compliance with the first request, and I think Counsel's email to him will acknowledge. After the email from them informing him of such, the only remaining item from this request above would be his request on updates for others which you can simply advise where he is in relation to your work towards fulfilling those other requests.

Hi Austin,

Thanks for catching my miss. I've attached the FAQs VOM and MCHOA collaborated on, as well as several other items I would like you to make available for the public to go along with tomorrow's meeting

No response, not surprised. Spreading false information comes with a consequence. Best of luck.

Ron Do it Ron, please, it would help us all. The transparency is all there as long as you ask for it and don't just assume, I'll bet you it is "clean".

If Marvin got a grant for a roller skating rink and nobody wants to go it will go bankrupt

Ron is this happening? I like roller skating but I hope you misread and it's actually an ice rink. Bankruptcy would stink, good thing Marvin doesn't operate businesses but unfortunately the outside business would lose money, that is bad but I bet the grant would have value to someone.... simple illustration and in this case me, I like skating. Can you send your source or is this a just a Ron what jf? (edited)

Tori appreciate it thank you. Not sure what you mean by dirty tricks as I wasn't there.

Did something happen?

Tori for those of us who only heard one side, could you share why your information is true vs. what was presented by the expert?

Michael no dirty tricks, the Village just brought in experts from the Union County sheriff's office to discuss the crime statistics Tori has been circulating. Unfortunately, they have all been completely disproven. I'm not sure why Tori continues to share the information, knowing that is is false.

Hi Tori, I was curious if you were able to listen to this morning's work session. Luckily for the community, most if not all of this was disproved directly by the Sheriff's office. Unfortunately this and other distributed crime statistics seem fabricated.
