Good morning, Christina,

Outside counsel has reviewed your request and I have discussed this with them. The Village's resolution of claims on its own behalf in the Comiskey Lawsuit does not change IRFFNC's evaluation of the coverage available, if any, for remaining claims in the Lawsuit which are not part of the settlement. We will continue to defend the remaining defendant, in her individual capacity, subject to the reservation of rights previously issued. This defense will continue to be provided so long as there are claims remaining in the Lawsuit that are potentially covered by the applicable IRFFNC policy.

For certain claims Plaintiffs have pled in the Lawsuit, exclusions or other Policy terms may limit or eliminate indemnity coverage depending on the facts proven by Plaintiffs at trial. Our prior correspondence with details on the coverage position and reservation of rights will provide additional information in that regard.

I know you wanted something more definitive, but we cannot comment on potential coverage, or lack thereof, for any future claims as the nature of those claims is presently unknown.

Please let me know if you have further questions/concerns.

Sincerely,

WILLIAM CONLEY

Ok well let me know something more definitive, if you can find out before Thursday morning, please. I just need to make sure our council and counsel is aware either way. Thx!
